Lees die storie: Jesus se geboorte

Eendag, ver weg in Rome wou die Romeinse keiser al die mense wat in sy land woon, tel. Hy wou seker maak almal het hulle belasting aan hom betaal. Hy het 'n wet gemaak dat almal moet terugkeer na die dorp waar hulle gebore is.

Maria en Josef het in Nasaret gewoon, maar Josef se familie het van 'n dorp ver weg gekom, genaamd Betlehem. Selfs al was dit 'n lang pad weg en selfs al het Maria 'n baba in haar maag gehad, het hulle na Betlehem gereis. Hulle het hulle huis agtergelaat en die lang reis gemaak.

Toe hulle in Betlehem aangekom het, was dit baie besig. Baie mense was daar as gevolg van die sensus. Maria en Josef het van huis tot huis gegaan, maar daar was geen plek vir hulle nie. Hulle het van een hotel na die ander gegaan, maar almal was vol bespreek.

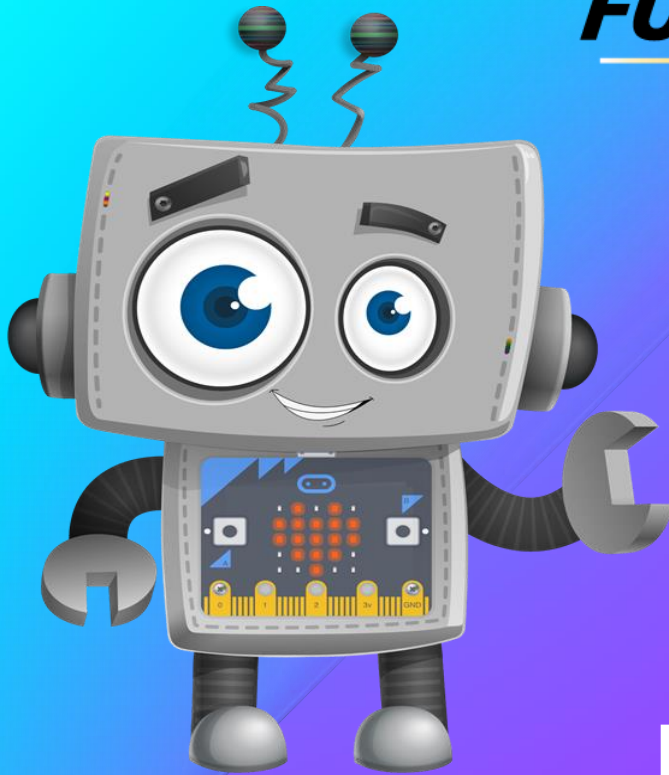

Daar was nêrens plek vir hulle om te bly nie. Uiteindelik het iemand gesê hulle kan saam met die diere in die stal slaap. Daardie nag, in 'n stal omring deur diere, het iets wonderliks gebeur. Jesus was gebore.

Maria het Jesus in 'n krip geplaas. Dit was gewoonlik waarin die diere hul kos geëet het. Maar daardie nag het die krip die Seun van God gehou.

making spirits bright,
What fun it is to ride and sing
a sleighing song tonight!

O! Jingle bells, jingle bells,
jingle all the way!
O what fun it is to ride
in a one-horse open sleigh!

Read the story: The wise men

In a land far away,
there were wise men,
studying the stars.

All of a sudden, a new star appeared in the sky. It was very bright!

“What do you think it
means?” they asked.

“It must be for a special king,” they said. They left home and followed the star. They packed some expensive gifts and rode their camels all the way to Israel.

When they arrived, they went to the palace and spoke to King Herod. But he was not the special king. King Herod was worried. He didn't want another king living in his country and taking his place.

The wise men followed the star away from the palace and into a small house. There they found Joseph, Mary and Jesus. They knelt down, and gave three special gifts to Jesus. They gave him, gold, frankincense and myrrh.

The wise men returned home a different way, not to see king Herod again. God warned them he would try and trick them. The wise men returned home happy.
They had found Jesus, the most important king of all.
